

Title I Parent Engagement Policy

The Lima City Schools' policy is to ensure that the parents of our students can participate in the design and implementation of our Title I program.

Parent engagement activities may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Quarterly progress reports
- District and School learning nights
- Parent-teacher conferences
- Parent workshops/training
- Providing timely information concerning Title I, such as plans/evaluations
- Parent surveys related to the planning, development, and operation of the program
- Responding to parent recommendations and concerns
- Regular communication
- Adoption of a School-Parent Compact
- Assuring that information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities are sent to the parents in the language used at home
- Parent volunteer program based on teacher needs
- Progress Book Parent Access

These ongoing activities and means of consultation will enable parents and faculty to collaborate to build a partnership between home and school.
